

BUFFALO BILL

Here is a buffalo! See if you can draw your own in the box below.

A large, empty rectangular box with a solid outer border and a dotted inner border, designed for a child to draw a buffalo inside.

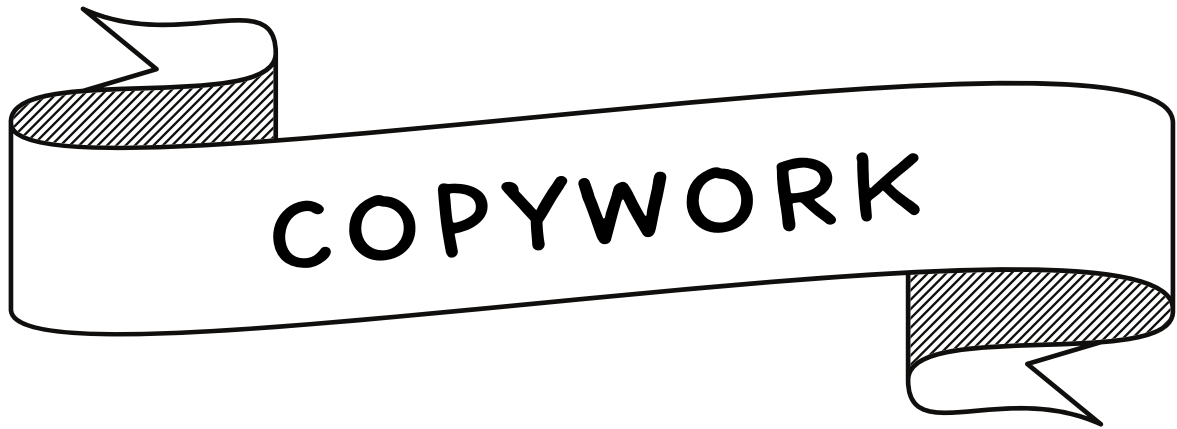

Draw BUffalo Bill and his friends telling stories around the campfire!

Handwriting practice lines consisting of ten horizontal rows. Each row is defined by two dashed lines, one above and one below, with a solid line in the middle, providing a guide for letter height and placement.

Tell an adult about your favorite part of our story this week and have them write it down here!

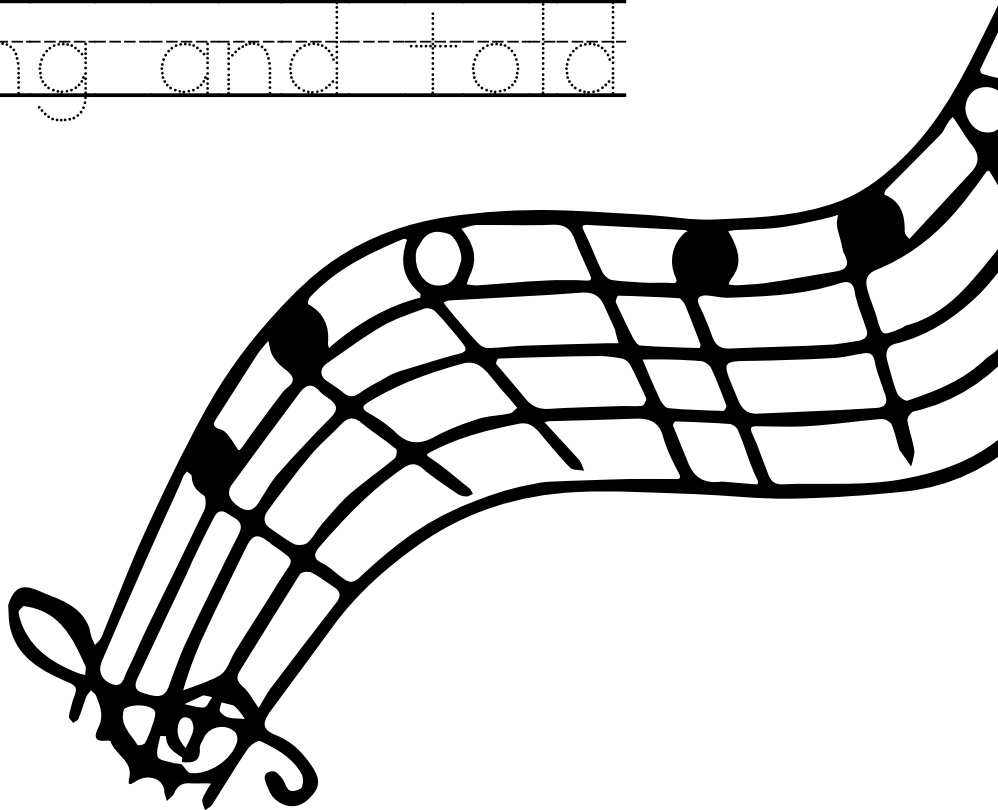

COPYWORK

At night they made

camp, sat around the fire, sang and told

stories.

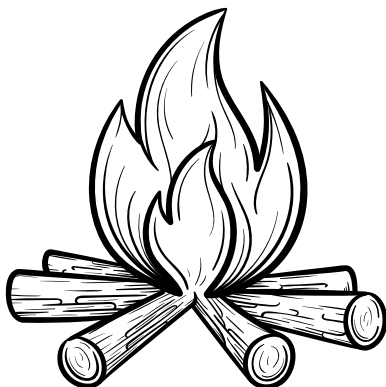

SPELLING

camp _____

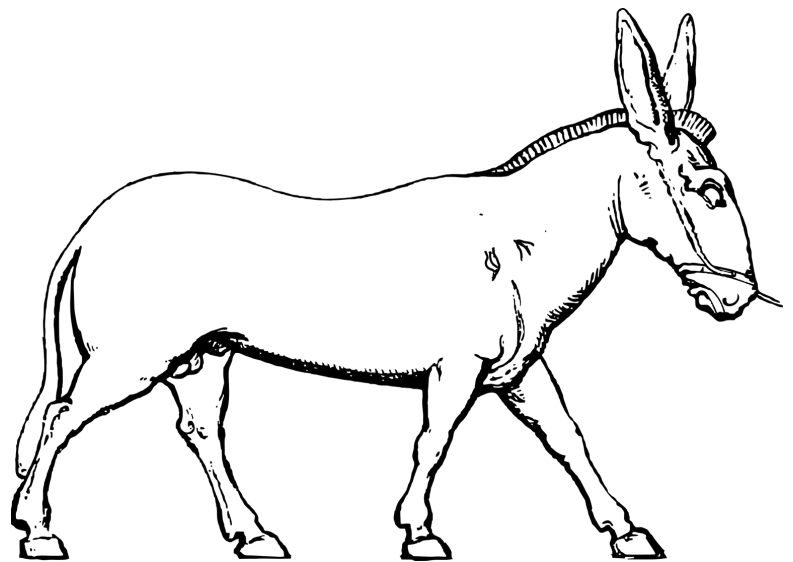

fire _____

stories _____

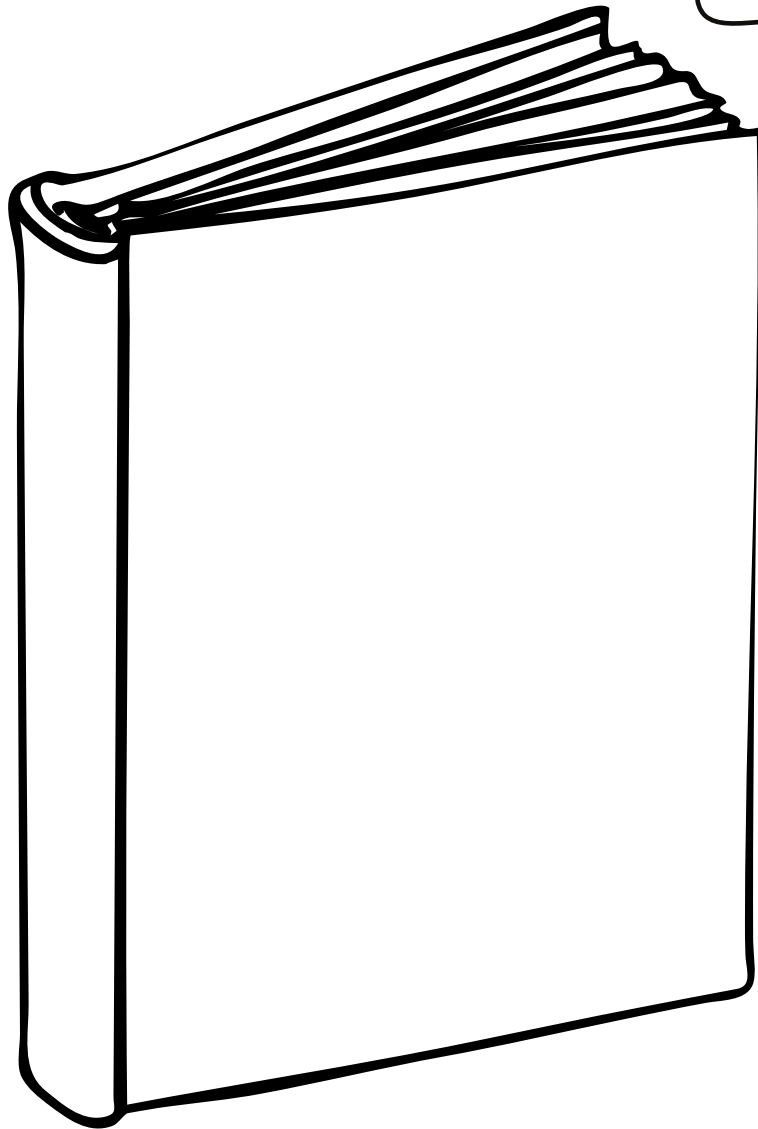

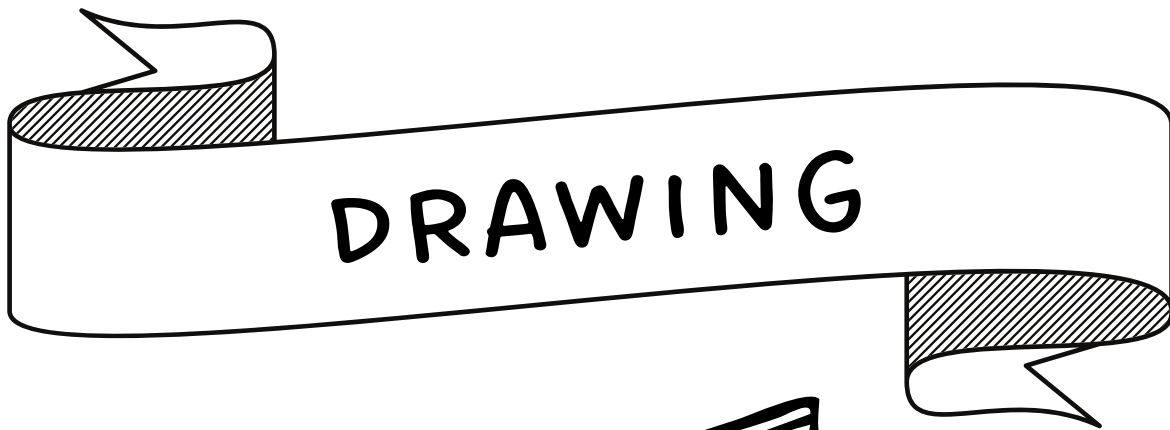

DID YOU KNOW?

A fire needs three things to burn?
Heat, fuel, and oxygen!

Draw Buffalo Bill, chasing after his mule!

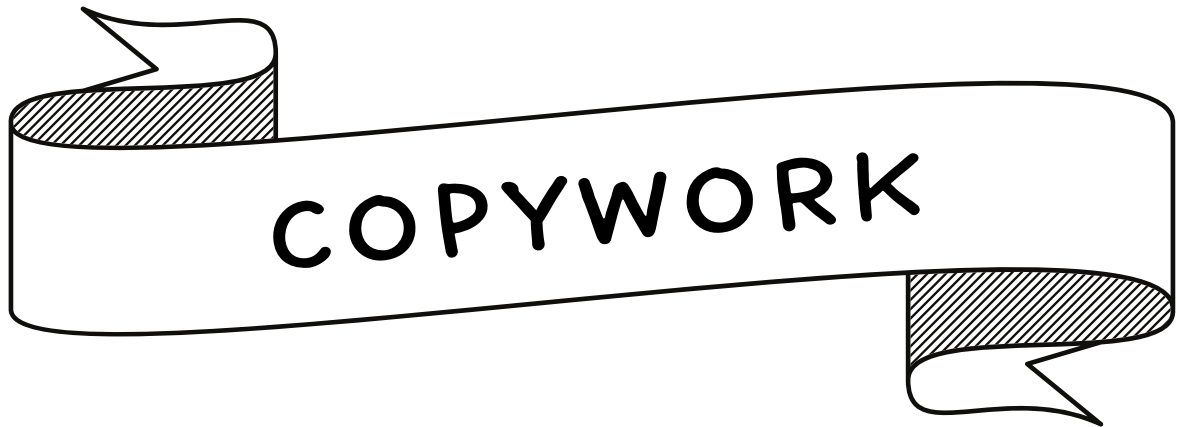

Draw a new book cover of Buffalo Bill here!
You can use our book to copy from, or design your own from scratch!

Handwriting practice lines consisting of ten horizontal dashed lines.

Tell an adult about your favorite part of our story this week and have them write it down here!

Buffalo Bill, followed

by his Wild West

riders, came to the rescue.

buffalo _____

rider _____

rescue _____

DISCUSS WITH A PARENT:

It says in our book that Buffalo Bill felt sorry for the Native Americans, but still helped moved them to reservations. Do you think this was right? Why or why not?

